

Inventions and Patents: Translating these to Money for Inventors

Guest Speaker: Taffy Williams, Ph.D.

Thursday, July 22, 2010 | 3:30PM - 5:00PM

Kresge Science Hall (School of Medicine), 4th Floor, Room C

Dr. Taffy Williams has more than 20 years of progressively responsible and diverse business and scientific experience in corporate management, research (including biological, physical and analytical), project management, financing, and organization building. Dr. Williams will discuss:

Protecting Your Idea

Attracting Partners

Negotiating the Deal

Brief Biography

Taffy Williams, Ph.D., President and Chief Executive Officer of Colonial Technology Development Co. and the Company founder. He also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Life Sciences Research Organization a not-for-profit company affiliated with the American Nutritional Society. Prior to Colonial, Dr. Williams served as president and Chief Executive Officer of Photogen Technologies Inc., IMCOR Pharmaceutical Co. and he was president and founder of InKine Pharmaceutical Company. Prior to that, he was president, CEO and Chairman of Panax. Dr. Williams has raised more than $100 million. In addition to executive management skills, the ability to grow companies and new business development experience, Dr. Williams is the author of eight patents, one invention registration, seven patent applications and 53 published articles. Click here to continue reading.

RSVP TO RENITA FIELDS

Ph: 215.204.5732 | reenie@temple.edu

www.temple.edu/ott

Sponsored by

Office of the Senior Vice Provost

for Research and

Graduate Education

Office of Technology Transfer

